GRUDON WINS NATIONAL, LITTLE EVA THE LINCOLN

The grand national steeplechase of 2,500 sovereigns was won by B. Bletchley's Grudon. C. J. Williams' bay gelding, Drumcree, was second, and J. E. Rogerson's Buffalo Bill, third. Janice was the biggest winner of all the Middlethians in 1900. Yellowtail and Kenilworth were matched to run six furlongs at Tanforan on March 29th, for $1,000 a side and $500 added money. Jockey Henry has left California for the East, to ride for the Keenes. No less than thirty-one horses sired by imported Brutus won money in 1900. Twenty-five came in first. The Roman was the biggest winner, with $5,175, and next came Brutus, with $3,160. Altogether, the sons and daughters of Brutus won $26,570. Willie Martin is riding again in San Francisco. The Lincolnshire handicap, the first of the big English races, was won by Captain F. C. Ball's bay mare, Little Eva, which started a hot favorite. Whitney's Jean Berland and Croker's Harrow were unplaced. The National Club and another San Francisco club are bidding for the Jeffries-Ruhlman contest. Cribb was favorite in his fight with Thurston, at odds of 10 to 7. Frank Slavin has sent a challenge from Dawson to Tom Sharkey. Dawson city will hang up a purse of $10,000 for the fight on July 4th. Slavin recently defeated a Dawson fighter, and is now champion of the Yukon. On the 29th instant Otto Cribb, of Australia, and Charles Thurston, the San Francisco welter-weight, were scheduled to fight in San Francisco. Tommy Cox and Jack Granfield also fought on the same date. It is probable that Stanford, as well as other Pacific Coast universities, will send athletes to compete in the Pan-Hellenic games at the Buffalo Exposition this summer. F. H. Yost, football coach of Stanford University, will endeavor to arrange a match between Stanford and Ann Arbor, to come off in Los Angeles next Christmas day, and a game between Berkeley and Ann Arbor in San Francisco for New Year's day. The Chicago National League baseball team for the season will be made up of, catchers, Chance and John Kling; pitchers, Menefee, Jack Taylor, Cunningham, Hughes and Easton; infielders, Doyle, Childs, James Delehanty, Raymer and McCormick; outfielders, Dexter, Green, Harzell and Dolan. "Sandow" Mertes, of the Chicago National League baseball team, has signed a contract to play second base the coming season with the Chicago American League team. John C. McCoughern has been elected captain of the Stanford University sophomore track team. Oxford is favorite over Cambridge for the boat race. The betting is 6 to 4 on Oxford. Experts consider the two crews to be the most evenly matched in years. The anti-gambling bill passed by the Arkansas Legislature has been signed by Governor Davis, and gone into effect. The Oxford and Cambridge athletes want to meet Harvard and Yale in September, instead of July. Harry Corbett, the poolroom man, has gone into the saloon business in San Francisco. Oxford beat Cambridge in their twenty-third annual golf match, nineteen holes up. The universities have now won eleven matches each. One match was a draw. Jimmy Williams and Mike Donlin will play baseball for the Baltimores this year. William Dineen has signed with Boston. Charles Zimmer, the famous catcher, will play with Pittsburgh, as heretofore. Oxford and Cambridge will probably accept the challenge of Yale and Harvard for a series of track games. Shamrock II will have no topmast or fittings, but will have a single mainmast. Mike Donlin will get $500 a month with the Baltimore baseball team. Oxford won the thirty-eighth inter-university track sports, held at Queen's Club, London, on the 29th instant, by six events to four won by Cambridge. The results were as follows: One hundred yard dash—A. E. Hinde, Cambridge, first; J. Churchill, Cambridge, second. Time, 10 3-5 seconds. High jump—G. H. Smith, Cambridge, first; W. E. B. Hendon, Oxford, second. Time, 5 feet 7 1/2 inches, second. Half mile running—J. R. Cleave, Oxford, first; J. Gilman, Cambridge, second. Time, 1:59 2-5. Putting the weight—E. B. May, Oxford, first, 113 feet 3 inches; B. C. Hartley, Cambridge, second, 109 feet. One hundred and twenty yard hurdle race—G. R. Garnier, Oxford, first; E. Alcock, Cambridge, second. Time, 17 seconds flat. Quarter mile run—L. J. Cornish, Oxford, first; R. M. Barclay, Cambridge, second. Time, 52 4-5 seconds. Mile run—F. G. Cockshott, Cambridge, first; H. W. Gregson, Cambridge, second. Time, 4:26 4-5. Hammer throwing—E. B. May, Oxford, first, 113 feet 3 inches; B. C. Hartley, Cambridge, second, 109 feet. Long jump—L. J. Cornish, Oxford, first, 21 feet 6 1/4 inches; G. Wiles, Cambridge, second, 20 feet 8 inches. Three mile run—H. W. Workman, Cambridge, first; F. H. Jeros-Smith, Oxford, second. Time, 14:55. The polo tournament at Moanalua this afternoon will be in the nature of a try-out to decide the team for the game on the 20th against the Maui Club. The public are invited to the exhibition.

BASEBALL WOULD BOOM IF THE CITY HAD A GROUND

Baseball prospects look brighter than for a long time past, and several teams are being formed, and a schedule of games arranged. If a decent ground were available a good ball season might ensue, but the old ground bogie is still the most formidable enemy that enthusiasts have to contend with. There is no half-way decent ground in or around Honolulu. The Young Men's Christian Association team looks like being a strong one, and the men have been doing some good work on the parade ground. Several old Star players are in the team, including "Old Pal" Gorman and Al Moore. Brown, the Hilo man, is expected to prove a nugget in the box. Oahu College will be well represented this year on the diamond, and will have much the same team as last year. A Marcellino will catch to Hemenway. Myers, erstwhile of St. Louis, will replace Marcellino at short. Castle, Perry, Dickson and Williamson are candidates for the box. J. Marcellino is destined for second base. Robinson and Kaulukou are wanted for field positions. Kamehameha will, as usual, make a bold bid for premier honors, and long on good material. Lemahua, shaping uncommonly well for the Harbottle, a last yearer, should be a tower of strength to the Kama. is a very useful all-round man, before, the main features of the Kamehameha's play will be seen with the bat. The Maile Hima Athletic Club cinched an unsavory strong box in Barney Joy and "Sonny" O. The latter will receive. St. Louis alumni are contemplating entering a team for the championship, but so far little is known of their arrangements. E. O. Hall & Son have a team will make the best of their opportunity, if their form of last season reproduced. The boys are tireless, enthusiastic, and will undoubtedly heard from when the time comes wrangle for the pennant.

INTERNATIONAL NO MORE SOCKS TARGET MATCH AFTER TODAY

Mayor Thomas A. Marshall, of Kelltsburg, Ill., the captain of the American team to shoot in the international target match which has been arranged with all England, is enthusiastic over the prospect. He said to a reporter in Chicago: "Our first contest will take place on the grounds of the Middlesex Gun Club, and the others will be held at Glasgow, Dublin and Edinburgh. After the original match has been decided or extra contests, if necessary, we will be prepared to engage in an international match at either live birds or targets that the foreigners want to arrange. "When we finish up with Great Britain we will go to Germany, France, Italy, and wind up at Monte Carlo. This is the first time in the history of trap shooting that a big international team shoot like this has been arranged, and we are going at it for what it is worth. It will be business combined with pleasure. Of course, we will do our utmost to win, as the trip will be expensive." Marshall has won the Grand American Handicap twice. The rest of the American team is made up of the following expert target trap shots: Guy Burnside, Knoxville, Ill.; Ralla Helkes, Dayton, Ohio; William Crosby, Ofallon, Ill.; C. M. Powers, Decatur, Ill.; J. S. Fanning, San Francisco; F. A. Parmelee, Nebraska; J. A. Elliott, Kansas City; Fred Gilbert, Spirit Lake, Iowa, and C. W. Budd, Des Moines, Iowa.

The Association season will wind this afternoon at Makiki with a between the Icarians and the team commencing at 4:15 o'clock. The teams will be: H. M. S. Icarus—Goal, Stead, Pilcher, Morris; halves, Thorp, Stiles; forwards, Jeandron, McDermine, Bird, Stone. Honolulu—Goal, Fenwick; back, Gill, R. Anderson; halves, Black (captain), Bottomley, Craik; forwards, Davies, Goudie, Boyle, Morse. The home team is strong, and treat spectators to a grand exhibition of the "socker" game. With an exception, it is perhaps the strongest team which could have been gotten together. The tars will make a big effort wipe out the two reverses encountered during the week, and are expected to make a much better showing. This afternoon's game will be the opportunity for the public to witness high-class football under the Association code, that they will have for months. There is no charge for admission. Tom Hollinger denies that Association and Virgie A have been making yet. He admits the extreme probability of such a thing, however, and that it is as good as made.

A VARIED MENU OF CHAMPIONSHIP SPORT TO COME BASKETBALL

Events of Interest to the Lovers of Many Branches of Recreation. Maile Ilmas and Business Men Will Fight it Out Tonight. This evening, at the Young Men's Christian Association, the Maile Ilmas will play basketball with the Business Men, to decide the city championship. The game will be of the closest possible description, as both teams are thoroughly on edge and confident of winning. The Mailes won the Association competition last year and did not lose a game. This year the Business Men were victorious, winning every game they played. The Mailes were not in the competition this year. The teams are as follows: Business Men—Drock, captain; Cheek, Fuller, A. Waterhouse, G. Waterhouse. Maile Ilmas—R. D. King, J. Clark, W. Wright, J. F. Wright, B. Clark. Substitutes, E. R. Allen, E. V. Richardson, George Clark, E. P. Hatfield.
